Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Jamie A. Upson, CFP®, AAMS®, CMFC®

Year of Birth: 1976

Education:

St. Anselm College, BA Liberal Arts - 1999

Certifications:

Certified Financial Planner™ Practitioner, (CFP®), 2006

The Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. grants these certification marks in the United States. The CFP certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP Certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

Candidates must satisfy a combination of education, experience, examination, and ethics requirements:

- Education - Complete a CFP Board-approved financial planning curriculum and attain a Bachelor's Degree from an approved college or university;
- Examination - Pass a comprehensive two-day, 10-hour certification examination.
- Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years and agree to continue to abide by the CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct.

Accredited Asset Management Specialist (AAMS®), 2003

The College for Financial Planning awards this designation to those who successfully complete the program, pass the final exam, and comply with the code of ethics. Coursework includes topics such as the asset management process, asset allocation and selection, investment strategies, and risk, return and investment performance. The designation must be renewed every two years by completing 16 hours of continuing education requirements and reaffirming to abide by the standards of professional conduct.

Chartered Mutual Fund CounselorSM (CMFC®) certification, 2001

The College for Financial Planning awards this designation to those who successfully complete the program, pass the final exam, and comply with the code of ethics. Coursework includes topics on mutual funds and their use as investment vehicles. The designation must be renewed every two years by completing 16 hours of continuing education requirements and reaffirming to abide by the standards of professional conduct.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

David Juliano is not subject to legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client or prospective client's evaluation of him or the services offered by him.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

David Walter Juliano is separately licensed as an independent insurance agent. In this capacity, he can effect transactions in insurance products for his clients and earn commissions for these activities. The fees you pay our firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Mr. Juliano for insurance related activities. This presents a conflict of interest because Mr. Juliano may have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

You are under no obligation to purchase the advisory services offered to you by David. You are free to obtain these services through other unaffiliated advisers or entities. There may be other products and services available through other financial professionals at a lower cost than those products and services available through David.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Refer to the Other Business Activities section above for disclosures on Mr. Juliano's receipt of additional compensation as a result of his other business activities.

Also, refer to the Fees and Compensation, Client Referrals and Other Compensation, and Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations section(s) of Stonehearth Capital Management's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

Item 6 - Supervision

Jamie Upson is President, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Member and Chief Compliance Officer of Stonehearth Capital Management. He can be reached at (978) 624-3000. Jamie supervises all activities conducted through Stonehearth Capital Management. The firm maintains policies and procedures to guide his activities and he adheres to a code of ethics.

Jamie reviews and approves the opening of all new client accounts as well as all transactions conducted in clients' accounts. Jamie has established procedures to monitor outside business activities engaged in by David, to oversee communications with the public, and to review his personal trading activities including any account over which David has direct or indirect beneficial interest.

Item 7 - Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

David Juliano has not been involved in any arbitration claim or civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding involving an investment or investment-related business or activity, fraud, false statement(s), or omissions, theft, embezzlement, or other wrongful taking of property, bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion, or dishonest, unfair, or unethical practices.

Certifications: CFP

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Professional

I am certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). Therefore, I may refer to myself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and I may use these and CFP Board's other certification marks (the "CFP Board Certification Marks"). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.cfp.net.

CFP® professionals have met CFP Board's high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

Education - Earn a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials.

Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual's ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.

Experience - Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.

Ethics - Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct ("Code and Standards"), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

Ethics - Commit to complying with CFP Board's Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional's services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.

Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Form ADV Part 2B requires disclosure of certain criminal or civil actions, administrative proceedings, and self-regulatory organization proceedings, as well as certain other proceedings related to suspension or revocation of a professional attainment, designation, or license. Mr. Joseph Gauvin has no required disclosures under this item.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Joseph Gauvin is not actively engaged in any other business or occupation (investment-related or otherwise) beyond his capacity as Financial Advisor of Stonehearth Capital Management. Moreover, Mr. Gauvin does not receive any commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Joseph Gauvin does not receive any additional compensation beyond that received as an Financial Advisor of Stonehearth Capital Management.

Item 6 Supervision

Jamie Upson is President, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Member and Chief Compliance Officer of Stonehearth Capital Management. He can be reached at (978) 624-3000. Jamie supervises all activities conducted through Stonehearth Capital Management. The firm maintains policies and procedures to guide his activities and he adheres to a code of ethics.

Jamie reviews and approves the opening of all new client accounts as well as all transactions conducted in clients' accounts. Jamie has established procedures to monitor outside business activities engaged in by Joseph, to oversee communications with the public, and to review his personal trading activities including any account over which Joseph has direct or indirect beneficial interest.
